

Mandatory Vendor Standards

All new vendors accepted into the Burlington Farmers' Market MUST meet the standards listed below. If you cannot meet any of these standards your application will not be considered and you will not be accepted into the market.

- 1. ALL VENDORS MAY ONLY SELL WHAT THEY THEMSELVES PRODUCE.
- 2. Vendors MUST reside in Vermont year round.
- 3. Vendors MUST have a VT state tax ID number prior to your first day of vending at the market (Some businesses are exempt; contact the VT Department of Taxes for more information in regards to your business).
- 4. Vendors MUST carry business insurance and meet our requirements of:
 - 1.) $1,000,000 Personal Liability
 - 2.) $2,000,000 General Aggregate
 - 3.) Name the City of Burlington as "Certificate Holder" & "Additionally Insured"
- 5. New Vendors must not already have an established business storefront that is open to the public. The market is an incubator for small businesses that may eventually open a storefront built upon their success at the market. If you are a farmer and have a stand at your farm, or you rent a space just to produce your product, you may be exempt from this rule.
- 6. Ready to eat prepared food vendors (with the exception of some flour products) MUST have a license from the VT Department of Health and MUST comply with their rules and regulations while selling at the market (Health Department will conduct random inspections).
- 7. Vendors MUST be familiar with and adhere to the Burlington Farmers' Market By-Laws and Guidelines which can be downloaded from our website:
 http://www.burlingtonfarmersmarket.org/vendors/application/

Application Evaluation Criteria

If you meet the Burlington Farmers' Market mandatory Vendor Standards and you have enclosed $25 non-refundable application fee your application will be evaluated by the Burlington Farmers' Market. Acceptance into the Burlington Farmers' Market is based upon (but not necessarily limited to) the criteria listed below. As you complete your application please consider and communicate how well your business fits the Burlington Farmers' Market evaluation criteria.

- 1. Does the vendor applicant offer a unique product made in Vermont?
- 2. Will the vendor applicant fill a useful niche in the market as a whole?
- 3. Is the product underrepresented at the market?
- 4. Will the vendor applicant bring a new approach to an existing product?
- 5. Will the vendor applicant help to make the market a world-class market?
- 6. Will the vendor applicant bring an authentic experience to the market as mentioned in our mission statement? Will the owner/key producer have a consistent presence at the market?
- 7. Does the application reflect a professional and clear approach to the business of selling at the market?
- 8. Does the vendor applicant fit into the goal of the market to be an incubator for small businesses?
- 9. Does the application reflect competence on the part of the vendor to follow through on the proposed product?
- 10. Are we familiar with the vendor applicant's potential setup and product? If not, does the vendor applicant provide references and information to address this?
- 11. Did the vendor applicant make a strong effort to show what their product and stand might look like, using photos, promotional materials, or samples?
- 12. Will the vendor applicant add to the spirit of cooperation expected in the market community?
- 13. Will the vendor applicant be cooperative to work with and value the privilege of being a vendor at the market?
- 14. Does the market have a space that can be best utilized by the vendor applicant? Is the vendor applicant flexible in terms of stand set up and space requirements?
